Additional Lots.

C. L. Gould made a trip to Albuquerque Thursday.

Col. Webb is in town to meet the president of the Copper Company.

Judge Francis Downs, attorney for the Santa Fe Copper Co., is in town.

Leon Caron, the genial proprietor of the Golden Palace, is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

The Santa Fe Copper Co. bids fair to be one of the most extensive mining and smelting concerns in the southwest.

G. W. North will put in a commission stock in his new store building, comprising hay, grain, flour and general merchandise.

Hon. Jay Hubbell, president of the Santa Fe Copper Company, is in town to-day. He will accompany Mr. Raasheim to San Pedro.

Homer Fitcher, a brother of Col. Fitcher and a former newspaper man, is in town to-day from San Pedro. He expects to take a position in the San Pedro store under the proposed new management.

Judge Harkness has not sold his hotel property, as was stated by rumor in the New Mexican of Friday. There was talk of trade, but no trade has as yet been consummated.

The Sunday law should be so amended as to make its provisions operate for the purpose intended, and not simply for the benefit of the district attorney, as at present. The fine for breaking the law should either be so great that no one could afford to violate its provisions, or it should be repealed. As it stands at present on the statute books it is an outrageous humbug, a mockery and an incentive to citizens to break other laws.—Lincoln Independent.

Mr. Moore, who for a long time was post master in Salt Lake City, Utah, and is now A. & P. land agent at Albuquerque, was a visitor to our town on Thursday evening. He was at one time a prominent mining man in Idaho. The famous Wood River mine, the "Minnie Moore," being named for his daughter. Mr. Moore purchased a fourth interest in that mine for $100. Three millions would not buy the property to-day.

TWO MILLION READERS are a great many to claim for one publication, but it is undoubtedly true that as many read The Youth's Companion every week. It has a world-wide reputation, and is sent all over the globe where the English language is spoken or read. The reason for its large circulation is found in its exceptional value. It is always safe, pure, entertaining and instructive. Its influence upon growing boys and girls can hardly be overestimated. It is remembered affectionately by their parents who read it a generation ago.

We would call the attention of our readers to the Special Offer of the publishers, an opportunity which comes but once a year. Any new subscriber to The Companion who will send $1.75 at once, can have the paper free to January 1, 1889, and for a full year from that date. This offer includes four holiday numbers, for Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Easter, all the Illustrated Weekly Supplements, and the Annual Premium List with 500 illustrations. Address The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.
